

Course Name – X-Extract Business Rules

Course Code – X03CA

Overview

The course consists of an interactive lecture, demonstrations and a hands-on lab covering the X-Extract (Business Rules) module. Lab instructions and i5 libraries are provided for you to execute the lab from your desktop and your i5 server

Description

This course covers the X-Extract Business Rules Extraction module. The course explains the types of business rules and how to derive them from i5 applications. The Business Rules data base is explained as well as Business Rules Where Used capabilities. Business Rules annotation and Screen Flow diagrams are also covered.

Topics Covered

- Definition of Business Rules
- Deriving Business Rules
- Business Rules database
- Business Rules Where Used Capabilities
- Annotation
- Business Rules with Pseudo code
- Screen Flow diagrams
- Confirming relationships

Duration – 3 hours

Requirements

X-Analysis plug-in installed in one of the IBM Rational tools - WDS, RDi, RDi for SOA, RSA or Eclipse on the students desktop.

Ability to connect from the students desktop to your i5 server for the labs.

Ability to restore the libraries required labs to your i5 server.

Cost

Instructor Lead Web - $ 200.00 USD per student
- $1,400.00 USD per private session

On Site - $1,750.00 USD per day plus travel and accommodations

To register and receive schedule please contact training@databorough.com